

Bringing Forth Soul Consciousness, A Primer to Living Your Divine Plan

Channeled by Rev. Annie Bachelder

Introductory Channeled Message from the Akashic Beings of Light

Welcome to the Akashic Records and to Bringing Forth Soul Consciousness. We are the Akashic Beings of Light, working in concert with your Akashic Masters, Teachers, and Loved Ones, and with the Divine, whom we call the Great Creatress.

As beings of pure Light, Our purpose is three-fold:

To begin with, We help you to release the tensions, conflicts, and difficulties that humans have in daily life. Utilizing your Soul's Akashic Records in our interaction with you, we augment solutions sourced in your Soul. This book, and the energy in it, teaches you how to transform problems into Soul level empowerment, even during times of great difficulty. This transformation includes magnificent opportunities to directly experience the Great Creatress at Her highest benevolence.

Second, We are here to expand your Soul connection, via Its Light, and Its refined consciousness. This will assist you every area of your life. It will assist you in sharing consciousness with the Akashic Beings of Light, and in experiencing your connection with the Great Creatress. Soul Consciousness contains within it keys to fulfilling your Soul's purposes. In turn, this benefits humanity's evolution, joy, and experience of Oneness with the Great Creatress.

To do this, We amplify your connection with your Soul chakra (the 8th chakra). We teach you how to experience your Soul's Light throughout your body. (Please see chapter 3 for complete instructions on "How to Embody Your Soul's Light".) Embodying your Soul's Light is important because the human template was damaged during the implosion of Atlantis. The implosion caused a breach between the physical (the human body) and the meta-physical (the Soul and the Great Creatress). This breach is the source of humanity's sense of separation from the Great Creatress, from Soul, from each other, and from the rest of creation. Embodying your Soul's Light heals the sense of separation. We Akashic Beings of Light are here to reunify your human consciousness with the steady stream of Soul Light and Soul consciousness. Embodying your Soul's Light speeds the reunification process and heals millenniums of errant behavior and disordered thinking. The intrinsic connection between your Soul and your physical self is reinforced through repeatedly filling in the connecting frequencies of Light between your Soul chakra, your Crown chakra, and the rest of your body. This conscious activity purposefully brings forth the knowingness of your Soul. It also makes it easier for you to cooperate with, and trust, the Great Creatress. Embodying your Soul's Light and consciousness facilitates harmonious relationships with other humans and offers you tools for making better life choices. This process develops your Soul level "sense of knowing", revealed gradually, gently drawing you forward on your Soul's Divine plan.

Trusting the reunification process is the first step of developing Soul Consciousness.

The Soul frequencies experienced through embodiment of your Soul's Light amend and strengthen, the connection between humanity and the Great Creatress, and with all Creation.

Simply put, the advantage of Bringing Forth Soul Consciousness is this: the more consciously the human connects with its Soul, the easier and more fluid the journey.

Acquiring Soul Consciousness is a main theme of many who have chosen to incarnate at this time in human history. The Akashic Records aid us in these pursuits.

(Please see chapter 2 "Getting Started, Opening Your Akashic Records" utilizing the Bringing Forth Soul Consciousness Akashic Prayer©.)

Thirdly, the origin of Our message is the Akashic Records. The Akashic Records are primarily an energetic structure, laden with love and wisdom.

The Records contain tremendously useful and valuable information and are saturated with unconditional love. The Akashic Records are an energetic transmission, causing energy and perceptual shifts, filling in the gaps in your knowledge and experience base. We and the Akashic Records always meet you where you are now.

We build our inter-working relationship with you at the rate and pace that suits your Soul's consciousness and your human self so that intimacy with your Soul is restored.

The Akashic Records hold everything that each Soul has ever spoken, thought, or done, throughout all Its incarnations. The Akashic Records also reveal all that has happened, is happening, and has the possibility of happening now, and throughout all time. The Akashic Records are an infinite, dynamic resource open to all. The Records are now accessible to everyone, and especially to those who have traveled and travailed to find the energetic keys to life, love, wisdom, and freedom. We Akashic Beings of Light have great respect for you who are drawn to explore the Akashic Records for dynamic information, essential healing, and accelerated spiritual growth. Through the Akashic Records, We extend our assistance freely, objectively, and completely devoid of judgment.

We already love you and We greet our beloved Readers warmly. We offer soothing for your suffering, and our kindest respect for your efforts. We are aware of each of you who are reading this book. We are aware of you who are working with energy, who seek to heighten your vibrational frequency, and to become all that you are created to be.

No request for our assistance is too much to ask, too small-minded, or off track.

We welcome all seekers, all human needs for comfort, security, knowledge, and all spiritual aspirations. We gratefully serve humanity's desire to experience, to expand, to heal, to evolve, to be at peace internally, and with one another.

From the infinite well of our Spiritual Heart, we welcome you to the Akashic Records and to Bringing Forth Soul Consciousness.

(Please see chapter 11 "Your Spiritual Heart".)

Reverend Annie Bachelder's Introductory Message

In 2019, I signed up for a writing class. Half-heartedly, I hoped to learn to write compelling marketing for my services as an Akashic Channel. During the first session, experienced students read passages of their work and the instructor gave feedback. During the second session, the instructor led us in a brief consciousness preparation process. Then, like a shot, I began to write. Without giving it a thought, I began channeling the Akashic Beings of Light and their introduction to Bringing Forth Soul Consciousness. Prior to that moment, I had not one whit of a desire to write a book. I had not been told by any of my spirit guides that I was to write a book, especially not one that involved deeply esoteric principles that were somewhat above my pay grade. Every time I sat down to write, I received another channeled transmission for the book. Many times, when I began to write, the Akashic Beings of Light had to “handle my case”. By that I mean these loving beings of Light had to calm my emotions and focus my scattered thoughts so I could channel their energy and information for Bringing Forth Soul Consciousness. This accounts for the meditative quality and content of many chapters. It is also why there are so many guided exercises that teach energy skills and ways of working purposefully in the Akashic Records. It's now 2022 and I continue to incorporate the principles of this material.

I use the technique of embodying my Soul's Light and consciousness many times a day. The process happens instantaneously now. It consistently smooths my emotions and clears my thinking. I treasure the added experience of being completely enveloped by the Great Creatress. I picture myself filled with my Souls Light, surrounded by the Great Creatress, feeling unconditionally confident. I observe as what I want to experience, and the resources I need, simply arrives. Fear transforms into stillness. Resentments vanish. I feel alive, on purpose, and know what to do, or not do. I know when the energy is ripe for action and when it is not. I trust my Soul and the Great Creatress. I feel spiritually aligned and ready to be of service to students, clients, and others as we navigate our Soul's Divine plans. Truly, the Divine doeth the works. Not I.

I hope that the Readers of this book feel, benefit from, and sense the energy in it. I hope they, and those they share it with, find it equally effective and helpful.

A little history to get us acquainted seems appropriate.

I was introduced to the Akashic Records, the energetic archive of the Soul's entire journey, after 25 years of being a 'conscious channel' for Anubis, my benevolent Spirit Guide. Being an "unconscious" channel seemed a poor fit. Voluntarily leaving my body and letting some entity take over? No. Not for me. Anubis and I agreed it was far more beneficial for me to be a conscious channel. This way I, too, would learn about the energy and information channeled in the transmissions. My experience of Anubis has always been that this kind Being of Light is the voice of a larger group of Light Beings who work together to "step down" their energy to make it discernible to me, my clients, and my students.

When I began channeling 34 years ago, I asked, "What is Anubis' higher purpose in channeling for me and other people?" Anubis stated that, "The higher purpose has always been reunifying Souls with their human counterparts. Reunification", Anubis stated, "allows conscious connection with Source. Reunification allows you to hold greater Light which accelerates evolution for the good of all." In my personal experience, and through reports from channeling clients and students, channeled readings amplify our inner Light, bring peace of mind to worried people, improve relationships, clarify next steps, and produce harmony despite difficult situations.

In 2014, I was introduced to the Akashic Records. I felt that for the previous 25 years, Anubis held my hands, gently and patiently, until it was time to lead me to the Akashic Records. Anubis then politely receded to the background so I could devote myself single-mindedly to the study and mastery of working in the Akashic Records. After 3 years of immersion in the Records, I received the message that it was time for me to begin teaching classes and leading guided meditations. Anubis graciously returned. Anubis now, is always available, and is often the source channeling the guided meditations and some of this book's chapters.

What are the Akashic Records?

“Akasha” is a Sanskrit word meaning “limitless sky”, much as someone would point to the sky inferring Goddess, Universe, or Divine Creator. Another translation of the word Akasha is “primary substance from which all things are formed”. This describes raw, formless energy before our thoughts and feelings cause it to manifest as physical things, people, and experiences we desire. Emanating from a Soul level plane of consciousness, the Records are extremely sensitive to any kind of vibration. The Records energetically record everything that has ever happened, is happening, or has the possibility of happening. All occurrences are indelibly recorded in it. “The Records” is a term comparable to the family bible, having dedicated pages listing births, deaths, marriages, divorces, plagues, earthquakes, droughts, etc.

The Akashic Records can be accessed by ordinary people and are organized for our use by your current legal name. The Records register everything that a Soul in human form has ever spoken, thought, felt, intended, or done in any of its incarnations during its evolution toward oneness with the Great Creatress. Also recorded are the interests, education, and consciousness activities of every Soul in between Its earth lifetimes. Bringing Forth Soul Consciousness through the Akashic Records is the perfect delivery system.

While I am a natural psychic and experienced channel, what stands out for me about the Akashic Records is the expansive, dignified, and validating perspective. The Akashic Records provide excitingly clear, practical, applicable, and useful information. The Records contain an entire spectrum of healing energy, transmitted on frequencies of unconditional love and respect.

The Akashic Records exist in an environment based on three principles: Fear Not, Judge Not, and Resist Not.

They enhance the ability to see without judgment, sense the importance of, and describe past lives, key concepts, and influential circumstances.

The energy and information originating from the Akashic Records has a compact wholeness to it and the proven, established process to access them is consistently reliable. Since the Akashic Records exist at a Soul level plane of consciousness, the information and healing are precisely attuned to the needs of the individual at that moment.

Bringing Forth Soul Consciousness is a key function of the Akashic Records. The integration of humanity with Soul Consciousness is one of the grand purposes of accessing the Akashic Records. Bringing Forth Soul Consciousness accelerates human spiritual evolution.

Please note: Throughout this book, the Akashic Beings of Light have highlighted personal memories of mine as examples of the chapter topic. These memories are [bracketed and italicized.]

It is my deepest desire that you receive help, peace, and purpose through Bringing Forth Soul Consciousness and the Akashic Records.
